2026 Opp Hall of Fame’s Educator of the Year

The Opp Hall of Fame Educator of the Year Award honors an individual who has served and shaped the way for students at an Opp City School or LBW MacArthur and has been influential to learning minds. This award is presented to someone who:

Possesses a strong connection to education in Opp: Having served as a teacher, administrator, or staff member at an Opp City School or LBW Community College MacArthur Campus, past or present, and contributing to the growth and success of students in our community.

Demonstrates excellence in education: Showing dedication, passion, and outstanding commitment to helping students learn, grow, and succeed both inside and outside the classroom.

Makes a lasting impact: Positively influencing students, colleagues, and the school community through leadership, mentorship, and a genuine investment in the future of Opp’s youth.

Reflects the spirit of Opp through service: Representing the values of our community by shaping young minds, supporting educational opportunities, and leaving a meaningful legacy within our local schools.

The Educator of the Year Award celebrates those who have devoted their time, knowledge, and heart to education, making a lasting difference in the lives of students and the future of Opp.
